

Membership Application for Lake Superior Watercolor Society

Call for experienced watercolor artists who would like to be active members of the Lake Superior Watercolor Society.

What does it mean to be an active member?

We meet the third Thursday of each month, September through May, not December.

Cost $30.00 per year. You must attend 2 meetings a year, participate in shows, bring art work to meetings for critique and participate in meetings. We meet for a 6:00 p.m. social and meeting at 6:30 p.m. We primarily meet in the Lakeside area of Duluth, and occasionally in other places in the community.

Mission Statement: The Lake Superior Watercolor Society (LSWS) was formed to promote the development and appreciation of watercolor painting in our general area; and to encourage individual growth in artists through meetings, discussion and the activity created by work study groups. An Annual show shall be held. Criteria for each show will be determined annually.

Admission is juried by the membership committee and by members as a whole.

We accept proposals in digital format only. On a CD or thumb drive please include:

1. At least 5 jpeg images of your current work, give size of unframed work and date when painted. Total maximum file size no larger than 1MB. Please, no email submissions.
2. Artist bio and resume to include:
  - A. How regularly you paint
  - B. Have you shown your work? Where?
  - C. Do you have a web site? Include address.
  - D. Why do you want to join the Lake Superior Water Society?
  - E. Do you know any members of LSWS?
  - F. Do you sell your work? Where?
  - G. Do you belong to any other art or painting groups?
3. What do you think you can contribute to LSWS to make it better?
